Andy Milkey Named Sales Director For Dahle North America, Inc.

Peterborough, NH, January 14, 2016 – Dahle North America, a world leader in professional paper cutters, shredders, and office products, would like to announce the promotion of Andy Milkey to the position of Sales Director. Milkey joined Dahle in 2007 as National Sales Manager. Since then he has successfully added nationally known distributors and re-sellers for Dahle's product lines.

In this new role, Milkey will be responsible for creating and maintaining Dahle's strategic sales goals to ensure continued growth. In addition, he will guide sales managers from both Novus and Dahle product lines in their efforts to build their territories, serve their dealers, and meet sales objectives.

"As Dahle looks to the future, it was time to expand our sales division," said Scott Prokop, VP and General Manager, Dahle North America, Inc. "Andy's experience combined with his knowledge of Dahle products and the marketplace, made him the ideal choice for this new position."

Andy works out of Dahle's North American headquarters located in Peterborough, NH. He can be contacted at (800) 995-1379 or by e-mail amilkey@dahle.com.

Dahle North America, Inc. is a fully integrated manufacturer of innovative office products and equipment with a brand name recognized for quality and precision. Dahle markets more than 300 products, including paper shredders, paper cutters and trimmers, scissors, pencil sharpeners, and Novus staplers.
